Fw: Pineview permit renewal

News from the PTP folks. Ray May was the legal owner of PTP, so now his brother has inherited the project. No word whether the HOA is willing to take-over the wastewater system, and w/ about half the homes in foreclosure or vacant, things aren't looking to great.

Subject RE: Permit renewal

Aaron,

Ray May passed away last week, so Leon had other things he needed to take care of. He should be in early next week. I had to contact Justin last week to ask for his assistance. Leon doesn't want to sign if the application is for PTP, so we are trying to explain the situation to him.

I hope to get it off to you soon.

you mean the permit "application". Make sure that they know the distinction.....this is not the permit.
